Dr Pacheco has been practicing since 2012 and is best known as a sports medicine chiropractor; however, his practice works with people of all ages with all different types of needs. "Mainstreet Chiropractic is centered around the patient and their needs. We focus on tailoring a treatment plan that is specific to the needs of each individual." Dr. Pacheco treats patients from newborns to 95-year-olds!

Mainstreet Chiropractic has a 5-star rating on Google. One of the patients said, "Dr. Pacheco is kind, patient and professional. Above all else, his initial exam was comprehensive from head to toe. His expertise is evident in the thoroughness of the exam and in his treatment of my neck, spine and hip areas. I highly recommend this practice and consider Dr. Pacheco to be the best chiropractor I've received treatment from." A staff member at Mainstreet Chiropractic explained, "We take your goals, treatment and care very seriously, but we enjoy having a relaxing and fun atmosphere in our office! We never want to make a patient feel rushed and Dr. Pacheco makes sure that your time with him is just for you."

Not only is Dr. Pacheco skilled in his profession, but he works to make his patients feel as comfortable as possible. "During the first visit, Dr. Pacheco will do a consultation and exam to find out what is going on and where the pain/discomfort is actually stemming from. After that visit, Dr. Pacheco will go over a Report of Findings with the patient and go over the results of the exam. This is what allows him to tailor the treatment plan to the specific needs of the patient which can include adjustments, dry needling, stretches and many other techniques," explained a Mainstreet Chiropractic staff member. If you are experiencing neck, back, hip, or any pain in the body, contact Mainstreet Chiropractic and book your appointment today!

Building Hope.

At Valley Hope, clinical experts work with patients to customize a comprehensive treatment plan that addresses physical, mental, spiritual, and emotional health needs. Each treatment team works hand in hand, side by side with patients and families to help them heal from addiction and reclaim their lives through recovery.

In addition to extensive clinical services, patients can explore various indoor and outdoor activities during their time at Valley Hope. The indoor areas provide a comfortable, cozy setting, with outdoor recreation areas including basketball and volleyball courts, running and walking trails.

“The very core of our approach is to treat patients with respect, love, and compassion, supported by evidence-based therapies, putting our patients on a strong path to sobriety,” Megan O’Connor, Valley Hope Foundation Executive Director, said. “That combination of compassion, clinical-expertise and unwavering dedication of the Valley Hope team at every level is highly regarded and often drives so many struggling with drugs and alcohol to choose our healing treatment programs.”

Currently, Valley Hope of Parker is undergoing an expansion project that will enable the organization to provide more treatment services to more patients, enhancing Valley Hope’s efforts to combat the growing addiction epidemic. The expansion project, “Building Hope,” is planned for completion by the spring of 2024.

Play Parker Days Festival

Parker Days is the one weekend a year that all families look forward to. The three day festival started in 1970 and has continuously grown ever since. Starting out as a way for families to connect with one another, Parker Days has turned into a summer-in-Parker staple.

During the second weekend in June, thousands travel to Parker from all across Colorado to enjoy the rides, live music, carnival games, funnel cake, street vendors, and time with friends and family.

The best thing about Parker Days is that there is something for everyone. At Parker Days you may find the one-of-a-kind art piece you have been searching for, or maybe you'll spend the night dancing to the infamous 80s cover band. Either way, there is something fun for everyone to enjoy at the festival.

At Parker Days, there are multiple different stages filled with live music from phenomenal cover bands. While you're waiting for your kids to finish up their carnival games, take a stroll and check out the 200 Marketplace artists and vendors offering a wide variety of goods.

What's something everyone looks forward to at a festival? The food! There is a variety of food trucks located at the festival with everything from funnel cakes to lobster rolls and crepes. The beer garden is a popular place to sit with friends and drink a cold glass of beer or wine on a hot summer day. Additionally, there are lots of activities for kids and families, including street performers, games, and all the typical carnival attractions.

Unlimited ride wristbands and tickets can be purchased online or on-site of the carnival. We hope to see you there.

Search Parker is a magazine owned and published by Bret and Amber Tueler. This magazine isn't like any other catalog you may receive in the mail but is completely distinctive to the Parker area. Search Parker is unique because it is one of the only mediums of communication that has not gone electronic, and, furthermore, sends monthly editions out to the residents in Parker, completely coupon and charge free.

The goal of Search Parker is to promote small businesses in the Parker area, along with communicating news and events to the residents of Parker. Owner, Bret Tueler, said, "It's a level of communication and a way to give information to the community and to the masses to help them stay in touch with what's going on with government, activities, and events." Each article discusses a different topic, tells a different story, or gives a different level of need to know information.

Additionally, Search Parker Magazine interviews local business owners and discusses activities and news occurring in Parker, which is expressed in each monthly edition. This can range anywhere from a food guide, to what's going on around town for the month. "It is a must have magazine. It is a must have communication to know what's going on." Search Parker is an excellent way to stay up to date on the new hot commodities in the area along with interesting discussions with local business owners. Stay tuned to see what Search Parker Magazine has in store for 2024.

Leadership Development

The Parker Chamber of Commerce invests in leadership development for Parker's professional community. Three of the Chamber's most impactful efforts are Business Over Breakfast quarterly events and the Women's Experience-Parker programs.

The Women's Experience leadership program takes 15-20 ambitious, motivated female professionals from the area and immerses them in a 10-month leadership program, covering topics ranging from sales and presentations skills, to mentorship, and diversity and equity in the workplace. The goal of the program is to help female professionals achieve more, do more, and earn more! Each year's class mentors the next, creating a network of women dedicated to making Parker an outstanding place to start a business or lead one!

Learn more about the Women's Experience at parkerchamber.com/WE/

Each quarter, 75-100 chamber members gather to network over breakfast and learn strategies to advance their businesses and professional endeavors. These Business Over Breakfast events challenge attendees on topics such as: rediscovering your passion for your business, or networking for results, or even topics as interesting as the emerging space industry in Colorado. BOB's are a wonderful opportunity to learn and make new professional connections.

It's all part of the Chamber's mission to be a catalyst for business success in Parker. To learn more about the Chamber, visit their website!
